Consent to personal data processing

The dance club Crazy Flutters (organization number 814801-2340) needs some information about you to sign up for European Convention 2020 (EC2020). We need to be able to process some personal information about you to provide you with a safe, secure and practical dance experience. The personal data you provide in connection with the application to EC2020 will be processed specifically for EC2020. The personal information we want to collect and process are as follows:

Name, Email Address, City, Country and Club:

We need this information to contact you and communicate with you. We save this data for up to one year after the EC2020.

Dance program:

We need to know your dance program to be able to plan for the different halls. We save this data for up to one year after the EC2020.

Food preferences, allergies:

We need to know your specific dietary requirements. We will save this data for up to one year after the EC2020.

Medical Information:

Please let us know of any special medical needs, allergies and other special requirements. This information is handled with extra care and only those persons who need the information directly will be able to access it. We will save this data for up to one year after the EC2020.

When you sign up for EC2020, you agree to (approve) us processing your personal information as described above.

According to GDPR you have the yearly right to know what personal data we process and how we process them if you request it in writing. You are also entitled to, at any time, request that we correct the information we process about you.

You also have the opportunity to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal information and the right to require your data to be deleted. This means that Crazy Flutters will no longer be able to process your personal data for the EC2020. It is important to keep in mind that it may affect our ability to provide you with a safe, secure and practical experience on the EC2020.
